Summary

Bachelor of Philosophy (Honours Diploma, Universidad de Buenos Aires). I coursed a Master Degree on Historic Research at Universidad de San Andrés (UDESA, Argentina) and, in February 2019, I will defend my PhD thesis on Philosophy with a doctoral grant by the National Scientific and Technical Research Council (CONICET) in Argentina.

I am a researcher of the Documentation and Research Center of the Culture of the Left (CEDINCI-UNSAM), where I am a member of the Academic Committee of the institution, of the Organizing Committee of scientific events and member of the Advisory Committee of the digital magazines portal americalee.cedinci.org.

My research topics are concerned with the reception theory of philosophical currents, links between politics and philosophy in Argentine history and the theoretical developments of left thought. To date, I have published ten articles in specialized journals in Argentina (6), Spain (1), Venezuela (1), Chile (1), Holland (1) and Colombia (1); and five articles in not peer-reviewed journals. In addition, I have published a book on documentary sources of anarchism in Argentina (Anarres-CEDINCI, 2018) and a compilation of texts by the Argentinean philosopher Carlos Astrada in co-autorship with Natalia Bustelo (Las Cuarenta, 2019).
